

MEDIA RELEASE

UNIVEG Deutschland's affiliate Josef Ahorner changed its name to UNIVEG Austria

The UNIVEG group of companies announced today that it has changed the name of its company Josef Ahorner into UNIVEG Austria. The new name draws upon the company's significant brand recognition.

Benefitting from UNIVEG's worldwide sourcing capabilities, UNIVEG Austria provides the full spectrum of fruits and vegetables and related services to a broad European customer base, including Eastern Europe. UNIVEG Austria will develop the Austrian and East European retail market as a complete fresh produce solution provider.

"The renaming of Josef Ahorner into UNIVEG Austria builds further on a strong market position and shows UNIVEG's continued commitment to deliver added value to our customer base", says Christoph Kilp, Head of UNIVEG Austria. "By using UNIVEG's global expertise, we combine overall sourcing, distribution and logistics capabilities and enhance our product range."

For customers and suppliers of UNIVEG Austria there are no changes to the way business is being done. The familiar contact partners will continue to work for its customers. Locations of UNIVEG Austria in Wien and Innsbruck will continue to operate as they did in the past and will guarantee fast delivery and seamless control of the supply chain.

UNIVEG Headquarters
2 September 2009

Further information    Corporate Communications, Nancy Goovaerts
Telephone                +32 15 32 42 00
Fax                         +32 15 32 42 01
E-mail                     Nancy.goovaerts@univeg.com

Visit our website        www.univeg.com

The UNIVEG group of companies is a worldwide supplier of fresh produce and is active in the fields of Fruits & Vegetables, Flowers & Plants, Convenience, Transport & Logistics. With an annual turnover of 3 billion EURO, operating in 25 countries, the Belgian-based UNIVEG group employs 9,500 employees worldwide.