Atlanta now part of the UNIVEG group

Atlanta AG is now part of the UNIVEG group. Simultaneously with the title transfer, the company name and legal form have changed. Atlanta AG is now UNIVEG Deutschland GmbH.

In order to clarify the affiliation with the UNIVEG group, the legal names of all the other Atlanta entities have been adjusted accordingly. The joint name UNIVEG symbolises competence, strength and a strong focus on service. The UNIVEG group offers a one-stop range of solutions. Fruits and vegetables, convenience, logistics and transport, UNIVEG Deutschland creates solutions for its customers' individual needs. UNIVEG's own production in the most important growing areas of the world and a comprehensive quality assurance system guarantee a high degree of quality and freshness. More than 9,500 UNIVEG employees work towards this goal worldwide.

For customers and suppliers of Atlanta AG and its associated entities there are no changes to the way business is being done. The familiar contact partners will continue to work for its customers. Locations of UNIVEG Deutschland in Bremen and the branches in Germany and Austria will continue to operate as they did in the past. The extensive network of trading centres and branches in Germany and Austria and UNIVEG's own logistic centres guarantee fast delivery and seamless control of the supply chain.
