UNIVEG completes Senior Management team with CFO

UNIVEG is pleased to announce the appointment of Davide Bustreo to the position of CFO of the UNIVEG Group, effective 7 October. Davide joined UNIVEG in 2006 and has been part of the management team with growing responsibilities since then. Davide has previously served as Auditor and Transaction Advisor at Andersen and held different finance positions in the fresh produce industry.

His appointment completes UNIVEG's Senior Management team of the UNIVEG Group. "We are very pleased to have Davide join our Senior Management team to provide financial and strategic leadership to the UNIVEG Group", states Theo de Kool, CEO of the UNIVEG Group. "His financial skill set and broad experience in the fresh produce business will provide the company with significant management strength as we continue to deliver on the great potential of the company's assets."

"We thank Koen Sticker for his work as interim CFO over the last couple of months. The work of Koen and his team is instrumental in helping to build the UNIVEG Group into the company it is today. Koen will assume the role of Finance Director and will report to Davide. In his role as Project Manager of Project Management Office (PMO) he will report to myself. Koen will also remain member of the Executive Committee", says Theo.

UNIVEG wishes Davide and Koen a lot of success with their new responsibilities.
